Birthdays for charity

On April 13th, Birthdays for Charity at Trilogy hosted two events, a luncheon and dinner, to raise funds to combat human trafficking. Sally Montgomery, Janet Macias, Patricia Blyleven and Karen Gross led a team of volunteers who hosted Dress Barn fashion shows at both events. Through their efforts, they raised close to $10,000 to sponsor a woman living in Rebirth Homes' Redemption Home.

The day was truly beautiful and close to 200 people were there to learn about human trafficking. Not only were they educated on human trafficking, but how real and relevant this issue is in our very own community. The day was amazing! It was rewarding to witness the outpouring of support from the community in the fight against human trafficking. Rebirth Homes is thankful for Birthdays for Charities at Trilogy for their generosity and a beautiful event. If you would be interested in hosting an event for Rebirth Homes, please email debbiem@rebirthhomes.com.

Risen with Jesus

On Easter, we celebrated three of the women in Rebirth Homes' program who made the decision to get baptized.

Reminder...

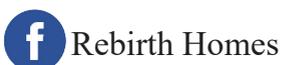

- Mentor Training: October 12th and 26th
- Fall Gala: Mark your calendars for the first weekend of November

Coping with PTSD

Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) is very common with survivors of human trafficking. When it comes to PTSD, it is crucial to understand triggers and how to cope when triggered. Rebirth Homes' counseling team provides training to our program participants to equip them on how to work through triggers. Coping skills can vary, but some examples are exercise, writing, praying, art, or other activities that help to ground the person.
